7. Security of your personal data

The protection of personal data in our company is not a novelty related to the acceptance of current legislative standards. Our company has been fulfilling its obligations and commitments regarding personal data protection for a long time. We have implemented and use an information security management system certified according to ISO / IEC 27001: 2013, which includes appropriate technical, personnel and organizational measures to protect personal data from accidental or unlawful destruction, accidental loss or change, unauthorized disclosure, access, storage or transmission and against all other forms of unlawful processing, including the inappropriate collection or further processing of personal data. These measures ensure a sufficient level of protection of personal data in accordance with the principles of the EU Regulation.

8. Data subject rights

The EU regulation sets out the general conditions of your individual rights. However, their existence does not automatically mean that when applying individual rights, they will be satisfied by us, as in a specific case, exceptions or some rights are linked to specific conditions, which may not be met in every case. We will always consider and examine your request for a specific legislation and applicable exceptions.

As a data subject, you have in particular:

- right to request access to personal data according to article 15 of the EU Regulation that we process on you. This right includes the right to confirm whether we process personal data about you, the right to access this data and the right to obtain a copy of the personal data we process about you, if technically feasible. The withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of the processing of personal data that we have processed about you on its basis;
- right to rectification and completion of personal data according to article 16 of the EU Regulation if we process incorrect or incomplete personal data; We strive to ensure the accuracy, completeness and timeliness of the information we have about you.
- right to erasure according to article 17 of the EU Regulation; you have the right to ask us to erase your personal data, but your right must be assessed from the perspective of all relevant circumstances.
- right to restriction of processing of personal data according to article 18 of the EU Regulation; If you think that the personal information, we hold about you may be inaccurate or if you think that we no longer need to use your personal information, you may ask us to stop using your personal information.
- right to data portability according to article 20 of the EU Regulation if the processing of personal data is based on a legal basis of consent under the performance of the contract;
- if we process personal data about you on the basis of your consent to the processing of personal data, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time;
- the right at any time to object effectively to the processing of personal data for the purposes of direct marketing (only a sending of a marketing newsletter); you can apply this right either by unsubscribing from the text of each marketing-oriented email or by sending an objection to our contact details below;
